The purpose of this finding aid is to help you understand the nature of this collection and to assist you in the retrieval of material from this collection. The following pages contain an administrative history of the agency which gives summary information about the agency's history and development; followed by a general description of the collection in the scope and content note. If more detailed information is warranted then series descriptions also appear. The container listing appears last and is the listing of material in each box, or container, of this collection. To request material you need to turn to the container listing section. It is essentially a listing of file folders, or artifact items, in the collection. Each folder, or item, has a call number associated with it. Each folder also lists the inclusive dates of the material in the folder. On the material request form list both the call number and the folder, or item, title. Use a different line for each folder, or item, requested. When your request sheet is complete, or full, bring it to the archivist and the material will be retrieved.

History Note

The Church of the United Brethren in Christ began with the preaching of Philip William Otterbein and Martin Boehm in the 1760's. At a 1789 conference at the parsonage of Philip William Otterbein, in Baltimore, Maryland, Otterbein and his lay ministers gave simple organization to the fellowship which had been holding sporadic conferences since 1774. On September 25, 1800 at a meeting of William Philip Otterbein, Martin Boehm, and other lay ministers at the home of Peter Kemp in Maryland, the church was formally organized. At this meeting Martin Boehm and William Philip Otterbein were elected bishops and the name, "Church of the United Brethren in Christ" was chosen. In 1815, the first General Conference was held near Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania. At this Conference a Discipline, a Confession of Faith, and a form of church government were approved. A second General Conference was held June 2, 1817, at Mount Pleasant, Pennsylvania. This conference improved the Discipline, elected two Bishops, formed a third Annual Conference, and arranged for quadrennial sessions of the General Conference.

In 1841 a Constitution was adopted. When the General Conference of 1889 attempted to change the Constitution a small minority led by Bishop Milton Wright walked out of the Conference and formed their own General Conference. They claimed to represent the Church holding to the original intent of the Discipline of 1841, especially in reference to its opposition to secret societies. The issue was brought to court. The court ruled against the splinter group and ordered them to take a new name. They called themselves the Church of the United Brethren in Christ (Old Constitution). The original group became known as the Church of the United Brethren in Christ (New Constitution).

In 1946, the Church of the United Brethren in Christ merged with the Evangelical Church to form the Evangelical United Brethren Church. In 1968, the Evangelical United Brethren Church merged with the Methodist Church to become the United Methodist Church.
