MRS. ROBERT ANNAND

Effie Annand, daughter of George and Jessie McGillis, was born on September 12, 1906, at Marshalltown, Iowa. She attended public school in her home city and Central High School in Minneapolis. She attended Wheaton College in Illinois and also spent some time at Maryville College in Tennessee.

She was married on her birthday, in 1930, at Wheaton, Illinois, to Robert Annand.

Mrs. Annand had a particular love for children and during the years of her husband's ministry was ever sharing her training and her love with them. She, with her husband, carried on a noble ministry for seven years at Grace Church in Minneapolis. While they were there their three children were born: Robert, Grace (she was named after Grace Church) and Don M. Annand.

This beloved one passed away on April 3, 1968. Funeral services for her were held at Grace Methodist Church in Minneapolis. Three pastors officiated: Paul Ingelin, Dennis Nyberg and Marshall Newton. She is laid to rest in Hillside Cemetery, Minneapolis.

"We live in deeds, not years;
In heart throbs, not in figures on the dial."

MRS. LOUIS W. DIEDERICH

Mrs. Emma Diederich was born on August 18, 1875, at New Ulm, Minnesota.
Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. German Friton.

She attended the Sleepy Eye, Minnesota, public schools.

She was married to Louis W. Diederich in New Ulm and this ministerial couple had a long and fruitful ministry in various Minnesota Methodist churches.

She passed from this earthly scene on November 12, 1966, in Long Beach, California. Funeral services for Mrs. Diederich were held at the First Methodist Church of Long Beach, California, by Dr. Donald R. O'Connor.

"Christ's call she answered, day by day,
As she strewed flowers of kindness—along life's way."

MRS. ROBERT H. DUEL

Elva Marie Duel was born April 26, 1880, in Naperville, Illinois, to Henry and Luella Kletzing. She attended elementary and high school in Naperville and continued her education at Northwestern University.

On June 20, 1909, she was married to Robert H. Duel. She was active in church and educational work all her life and taught children until she was eighty years old. She died in Austin, Minnesota, at the age of eighty-seven. Stanley Hanks conducted the funeral service and she was buried at Winona, Minnesota.

She is survived by her husband, Austin, Minnesota; a daughter, Mrs. Paul Kruell, Delano, Minnesota, and a son John Robert Duel of Winona, Minnesota.

MRS. EVERETT HALL

Mrs. Florence Hall, widow of Everett Hall, former pastor of Red Wing Methodist Church, died on June 18, 1967. She was born on March 9, 1886, at Bath, England. She attended schools there. She was married to Everett Hall on September 2, 1910. The couple came to the United States in 1913. They served several churches in North Dakota and in various Minnesota communities.

Mrs. Hall had resided in Red Wing for ten years, until the time of her
