LAY MEMBERS

Luther Vining Barker was born on July 2, 1888, at North Adams, Mich., of devoutly christian parents. He grew up in the Sunday School and Church, early gave his heart to God, united with the Methodist Church and developed the sterling character that was to mark him as an unusual man among men. He graduated from the North Adams High School and attended Hillsdale College. His first positions were in the banks at Honor and Stanwood, Mich. He served in the First World War. After the war he came to Highland Park, Mich., established an undertaking business which grew to large proportions. He then united with the Trinity Methodist Church, of which he was a very active official member, serving as chief usher and for the last eight years as delegate to the Annual Conference. In 1919 he married Miss Erma Kollar with whom he lived a beautiful christian home life. He died during his sleep on the night of November 16, 1940. His sudden death shocked the church and the Community. Trinity Church was filled to capacity at the funeral service of this fine christian and representative citizen.
