

OFFICIAL
JOURNAL AND YEARBOOK
OF THE FOURTEENTH SESSION
SOUTHERN ILLINOIS CONFERENCE
OF
THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
131st Session of the Southern Illinois Conference

McKENDREE COLLEGE LEBANON, ILLINOIS

May 26-29, 1982

LEROY C. HODAPP PRESIDING BISHOP

ROBERT EDWARDS HOST PASTOR

WILLIAM COOPER, GARY JENKINS
CO-HOSTS

Published By

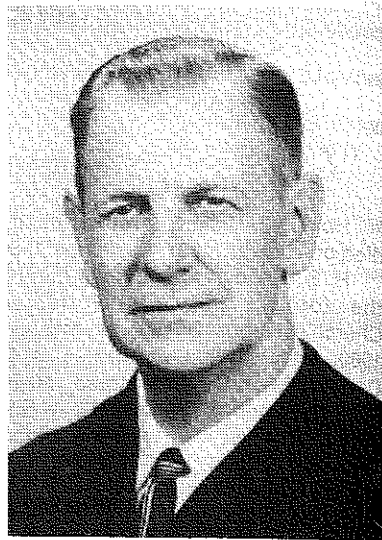

THE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON JOURNAL PUBLICATIONS

Phillip Poe, Chairperson
Vernon Brown
David Reynolds

Anita Peyton
Howard Province
James Yates

Editor: William Frazier, Conference Secretary

DYCUS

Funeral services were held for Ernest M. Dycus at the First United Methodist Church, Lawrenceville, with Rev. Ray Porter and Rev. James Nettleton officiating. He was buried in the West Salem Cemetery, Mt. Vernon, IL.

FOX

Pastoral ministry in Southern Illinois in 1923. They served churches in Monroeville, Centralia, Oblong, Hutsonville, Sumner, Rigeway, Medora, Granite City, and Equality. Rev. Fox retired in 1956, and he died in 1957.

Mary Fox returned to Martinsville, following her husband's death.

HERRIN

Florence and Homer Herrin served Southern Illinois churches in Friendsville, West Liberty, Dieterich, Flat Rock, St. Francisville, Cisne, Dodgeport, Carrier Mills, and Ashley. Rev. Herrin retired in 1960. The Herrins resided in Olney until Rev. Herrin's death. Florence Herrin continued to live in her home in Olney.

GEORGE O. HOOVER

George O. Hoover, a retired pastor, died on February 6, 1982 in Metropolis. He was 69.

George Hoover served pastorates in Mill Shoals, New Burnside, Reynoldsburg, and Taylor. From 1945 until his transfer to Southern Illinois in 1968, he served churches in the Louisville Conference, KY.

George Hoover is survived by his wife, Mary, and their six children — Mrs. Donna Taber, Metropolis; Mrs. Gladys Walk, St Paul, MN; Bill, of Benton, KY; James, of Chicago; Robert, of Terre Haute; and Charles, of Paducah.

Funeral services for George O. Hoover, were held at the First United Methodist Church, Metropolis, Rev.

Earl Black officiating. Rev. Hoover was buried in the City Cemetery of Herrin.

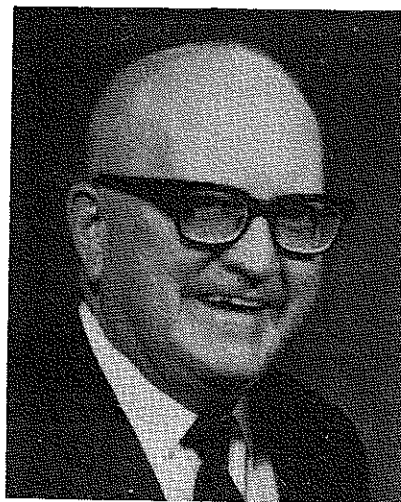

HAROLD L. LEU

Harold L. Leu, 76, a retired pastor, died on January 7, 1982 in Greenville.

He was born near Highland on September 19, 1905, son of Phillip and Elizabeth Bauman Leu. In 1932, Harold and Ethel Lindley Leu were married by the Rev. Fred C. Mery. Rev. Leu is survived by his wife; a brother, Oliver and a sister, Florence Weiss, both of Highland, and a nephew, Harvey Fenton of West Salem.

Prior to his entering the ministry, Harold Leu operated a grocery store in Pocahontas for 18 years. He began his pastoral ministry in 1947, and served churches in Pocahontas, Diamond Springs, Robinson, Astoria, Lancaster Parish, and West Salem. He retired in 1970.

A service was held in memory of Harold L. Leu in the First United Methodist Church of Greenville on January 9, 1982, Rev. Velis Vais and

Rev. Elmer Fenton were the officiating ministers. Mr. Leu was buried in the Mt. Auburn Cemetery, Greenville, IL.