h Mindows

PRICES ON APPLICATION

st of Opalescent Glass, nd Galvanized Steel used.

I USE ZINC IN CHURCH WINDOWS)

WELCOME TO OUR PLANT of Court House, Opposite City Hall, ain and Seventh Streets.

son Art Glass Co.

ANDERSON, INDIANA

ILLINOIS N'S COLLEGE

KSONVILLE, ILLINOIS

COLLEGE. Confers Bachelor of Arts and grees, and Bachelor of Science Degrees in Home Education, Art Education, and Nursing. Mem-Association of Colleges and Universities. Gradulership in American Association of University ties for professional work in all branches of eum work and Supervisor's course in Public or Drawing and Painting, Public Speaking, Doarial and Physical Education.

six buildings, including the new Mac Murray mnasium, well equipped, and a beautiful swimlar college athletics are conducted through the Department, including tennis, hockey, and all erested in securing students who are well preand who are looking for good four-year courses. aughters of ministers.

mation describing the above courses, write at

IS WOMAN'S COLLEGE Jacksonville, Illinois MINUTES

OF THE

North Indiana Annual Conference

OF THE

Methodist Episcopal Church

Eighty-Sixth Session held at Logansport, Indiana, April 2 to April 8, 1929

Published by the Secretary

By order of the Conference as the Official Journal

1929

BOUNDARY, NORTH INDIANA ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

"On the north by the State of Michigan; on the east by the State of Ohio, including Union City; on the south by the National Road from the State line west to Marion County; thence north to the northeast corner of said county; thence west to the Michigan Road; on the west by said Michigan Road to South Bend; and thence by the Saint Joseph River to the Michigan State line, including Logansport and all the towns on National Road east of Indianapolis."

CINCINNATI: THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN PRESS

and 1910

min Cou

and of age Chur

marri trade the ca

in the spoker

retirin at Bur

becomi town, daught eightee age bei

Go Alonzo

Middle Mrs. L Fish, of

who dec family of Mrs. Fi

pitiful sa

fully bor good pe maturity

Mollie B

ten grand

These b

The

Her home life was most beautiful, and could only be fully appreciated by those Her home life was most beautiful, and could only be fully appreciated by those who knew her best. Her plans were already being formulated for the higher education and training of the daughter, Josephine, who has been such a comfort to the mother heart. To know her was to love her, for her great interest was in "Others," which she loved to sing. She was a continual inspiration to the husband, whose ministerial problems never failed to enlist her deepest interest and sympathy.

Her illness has been characterized throughout by a most beautiful Christian faith, and she has repeatedly given most conclusive evidence of her readiness to

She leaves in the immediate family her mother who has so tenderly and lovingly cared for her through these last weeks of her illness, her father afflicted and grief-stricken; one brother, Raymond F. Cripps, of Albany, Georgia; her husband and daughter Josephine, a large number of relatives, and a mighty host of friends.

Who can say that in her death, so triumphant, she has not lifted more burdens from the hearts of those who observed her victories, than she ever could have done Death is one thing that happens to all, and when one so splendid in life meets this monster without fear, even with a smile, even with an invitation for him to match his strength with that of her wonderful Saviour, there is an inspiration which causes one to thrill with wonder and with confidence.

The funeral services were conducted in the First Methodist Episcopal Church in Union City, Saturday, August 25, 1928. The Scripture lessons were read by W. E. in Union City, Saturday, August 23, 1920. The Scripture lessons were read by W. B. Pittenger and J. A. Land; prayers were offered by E. L. Jones and W. W. Wiant. Short talks were delivered by Prof. Don Ward on behalf of the church, Rev. A. L. Ward on behalf of the Ministerial Association, and Mrs. W. T. Arnold on behalf of Ward on behalf of the Ministerial Association, and Mrs. W. T. Arnold on behalf of women's societies of the Conference. The sermon was preached by the District Superintendent, F. F. Thornburg, the text, "Death Is Swallowed Up in Victory," being used. The choir rendered "Unfold, Ye Portals Everlasting," "The Homeland in the Sky," and "Sleep On, Beloved." The interment of the body took place in the beautiful Odd Fellows' Cemetery in Marion, where remarks were made by F. K. Dougherty and prayer was offered by R. V. Johnson.—F. F. Thornburg

MRS. SUSAN BESWICK MILLER

Mrs. Susan Beswick Miller was born in Logansport, Indiana, February 12, 1839, the daughter of George M. and Hester Beswick. Her parents were pioneer preachers in Indiana, which gave her the opportunity of early Christian influence and the development of a strong moral character that was of great help to her in the years of her mature life as the wife of a Methodist preacher. She was united in marriage to Rev. Samuel C. Miller, late of the North Indiana, who died in 1921.

Mrs. Susan Beswick Miller

She was a great help to her husband in his work in the ministry, and by her strong Christian character, kindly and lovingly manifested in her work among the people whom they served in their respective charges, she will be long remembered as Jesus Christ. After a few years in the active work of the ministry she and her husband retired to their farm near Paw Paw, where she was a faithful and regular attendant on the services of the local church, but in which she rendered efficient service in different lines of its activities. She was the mother of four children: Laura, deceased; Mrs. Georgia Long, of near Chili; Mrs. Sarah Elliot, of Wabash, and Edwin B., of Richland Township, living on the old home place. One sister, Mrs. Laura B. McKaig, of Sioux City, Iowa, also

After an illness of only three days from paralysis, she passed away from her old home near Paw Paw, October 2, 1928, at the age of 89 years, 9 months, and 20 days. The funeral

89 years, 9 months, and 20 days. was conducted by Rev. L. M. Krider from the home church at Paw Paw, the body