ALONZO W. MANNING

Rev. Olonzo W. Manning was born in Wapakoneta, Ohio, January 18, 1872. He was the son of William and Martha Manning. After completing his high school course he attended Ohio Wesleyan University from which he graduated in 1899.

He was married to Miss Ruby Longenecker, September 10, 1901. To this union there were born five daughters, Betty and Mary Manning, at home; Mrs. K. E. Murphy, Mrs. Howard Rensch, and Mrs. D. McVicker, all of Galion; and three sons, Samuel at home, W. R. Manning of Zanesville, and Robert Manning of Galion.

He was received on trial in the North Ohio Conference in 1902 and into full membership in 1905. He served the following charges with great acceptability: Keene and Clark, Beallsville and Butler, Ontario, Hayesville, Kimbolton, Adamsville, West Bellaire, Chandlersville, and Powhatan Point. On account of failing health he took the retired relationship in 1927.

During his retirement he has made himself useful in the communities in which he resided, having spent ten years of this time in Galion.

Brother Manning was well educated and had a well grounded understanding of the Bible. He was a good minister of our Lord and Master.

He died in White Cross Hospital, May 19, 1940 and was buried from the First Methodist Church in Galion, May 23, 1940. Dr. H. W. Peterson, the District Superintendent, was in charge of the service, assisted by the pastor, W. N. Robertson. Twenty-five of the ministers of the Mansfield District were in attendance and took part in the funeral services. He was buried in Fairview Cemetery, Galion, Ohio.

HARRY F. PATTERSON

Harry F. Patterson was born at Deersville, Ohio, June 10th, 1870. He received his education at Scio College. Following his graduation he taught school for several years. He was married to Norah Leona Strahl, October 14th, 1896. With her he spent thirty-five years in the Methodist ministry, uniting with the East Ohio Conference in 1896. In this conference he served the following churches: Empire, Bethesda, and Freeport. In the North-East Ohio Conference he served Newcomerstown, Struthers, Toronto, Medina, Wesley charge at Massillon, and Dalton.

His wife preceded him in death on February 26, 1928. Brother Patterson passed to his reward, August 13, 1940 after an illness of several months. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. David McCullough of Dalton; two sons, Frank L. and Myron I. of Massillon; and one brother.

Funeral services were held Friday, August 16th, in the Dalton church. Dr. C. B. Hess officiated, assisted by Dr. W. O. Hawkins, Rev. W.

E. Speaker, Rev. E. L. Lea, Rev. W. H. Oswald, and Rev. Harold Milford, the supply pastor at the Dalton charge. The burial was at Deersville.

WILLIAM CARL PAUTZ

William Carl Pautz was born at Arnprior, Ontario, Canada, August 14, 1887, one of a family of five sons and two daughters. He was overtaken by death suddenly on May 9, 1940, while in the midst of a widely influential service of teaching and Christian ministry. His parents, Ferdinand and Wilhelmina, died some years ago, his father in 1927 and his mother in 1928. Three brothers and one sister survive: Herman, of Buckingham, Quebec; John, of Ottawa; Gordon, of Toronto; and Mrs. George Grandmaison, of Buckingham.

When nineteen years of age, William was converted and united with the Evangelical Church of Canada. He was called to the Christian ministry and
