Fourth. To hope and pray that some God blessed generous souls will pay the $10,000 debt now resting on the church erection division of this department.

Fifth. That every worker in the Home Mission field receive an adequate salary, thus relieving them of financial worry that they may devote their full spirit and time to the work.

Sixth. That we bear in mind that we have good United Brethren folks in many needy and virgin fields, praying that we will serve their communities. The calls are many and great. If we don't enter, God must place other denominations in charge and they will receive the resultant blessings. We must grow or surrender our place to others.

Seventh. That we place emphasis on Missions during the educational period, November, especially on the Home Mission Sunday, Nov. 22.

Eighth. That we stress a full budget for without this the Home Missions department will be greatly handicapped in the good work.

R. W. DRISCOLL,
C. O. SCHAFER,
C. D. KNAPP.

NO. 21. COMMITTEE ON MEMOIRS

We your committee on memoirs wish to report the following:

Whereas it hath pleased our dear Heavenly Father to call from our ranks the souls of our departed friends, it is fitting that an appropriate memorial should be held during this conference.

During the year the faithful and beloved servants have been taken to the reward. Rev's. J. A. Robinson, I. Bennehoff, E. E. Belden, Mrs. P. E. Smith and Mrs. H. Rowland.

At the time given on the program the following brethren will speak briefly to the above mentioned names. Rev. V. O. Weidler, Rev. R. J. White, Rev. P. E. Smith, Rev. W. P. Hanks and Rev. W. A. Bennett, after which Rev. N. J. MacIntyre will preach the memorial sermon.
