MINUTES

of the

Fifty-Eighth Annual Session

of the

INDIANA CONFERENCE

of the

Evangelical Association

Held at the

FIRST EVANGELICAL CHURCH

Wabash, Indiana, April 7-10, 1910

D. D. SPANGLER, Editor and Publisher

Press of J. A. Bell Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Resolved, That we as a conference here and now pledge before our Lord to give this worthy cause our most hearty support during the year of 1910-11.

Whereas, A. J. Voegelein, superintendent of the Deaconess Home in Chicago, Ill., has submitted to the Indiana Conference such an excellent report of the Deaconess Home, explaining its operations and urgent needs; be it therefore Resolved, That we as a conference are in hearty sympathy with this institution and pledge our best efforts in extending the Lord's work through the deaconess cause.

Whereas, This conference has been so royally entertained by the members of the Evangelical Church and the citizens of Wabash, Ind.; and whereas, we fully realize the responsibility of those who assume the work necessary for such entertainment; be it therefore

Resolved, That we as a conference extend to the people of Wabash our many thanks for their hospitality; and further be it

Resolved, That we manifest this appreciation by a standing vote.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MEMORIALS.

Whereas, The Lord removed the following brethren from our ranks in the past year from labor to reward, namely William Koenig, Bernhart Ruh and Anson VanCamp, we, your committee, submit the following memorial report:

Rev. William Koenig.

Whereas, It has pleased the Lord, in whose hands are life and death, to call Rev. William Koenig to his eternal reward; be it

Resolved, That we thank our heavenly Father for his useful life and the good which he did among us, and we rejoice in his eternal rest from labor.

He was a faithful member of our conference and of the Evangelical Association. Thirty years of his life were spent in the itinerant ranks of our conference. He was soundly converted to God, and was a good, sound, orthodox preacher. The Lord gave him many souls for his hire. He fell asleep in Jesus Oct. 15, 1909, at the ripe age of 73 years, 5 months and 21 days. His mantle has fallen upon his son, who is a member of our conference.

Rev. Bernhart Ruh.

It also pleased the Lord to call Rev. Bernhart Ruh to his eternal reward. He was born Dec. 19, 1827, and converted to God in the year 1850. He was licensed to preach by the Illinois Conference in 1852. At this conference session the Indiana Conference was organized, of which he became a charter member. He served in the Indiana Conference eleven and one-half years. In the year 1863 he again joined the Illinois Conference and served in the itinerant ranks sixteen years, and then he located because of bodily infirmity. He fell asleep March 25, 1910, in South Bend, Ind., aged 83 years, 2 months and 19 days. He was the last charter member of our conference.

Resolved, That we feel the loss of our departed brother, but rejoice in his eternal rest from labor.
