

JOURNAL of the
Pacific Northwest Annual Conference

of
The Methodist Church

The Eighty-Seventh Annual Session

In Washington and Northern Idaho

and the

Twenty-Second Session Since Methodist Reunion

Held at the University of Puget Sound, Tacoma, Washington

June 7-10, 1960

BISHOP A. RAYMOND GRANT, President
714 Jackson Tower, Portland 5, Oregon

REAH S. DOUGHERTY, Secretary
WOODLAND PARK METHODIST CHURCH
N. 78th & Greenwood, Seattle 3, Washington

THE OFFICIAL RECORD

By Order of the Conference

SEATTLE

THE CRAFTSMAN PRESS

1960

BENADOM

in Kentucky on January 5, 1877. She died in 1959. She was married to Rev. W. O. [unclear] in 1921. They served Lynden, [unclear] in 1928. Mrs. Benadom has resided [unclear] where she was an active member of [unclear] of the Confederacy. She is survived by [unclear] daughters, Mrs. B. R. Patten, and Mrs. [unclear] om; four sisters, four grandchildren of Rev. Freeman Boothby, died in [unclear] of her 82nd birthday. She was born [unclear] 77. The Boothby's came to the Pacific [unclear] at Asotin, St. John, Palouse, Nook- [unclear] retired in 1942. Mrs. Boothby was a [unclear] and the Sunset Club.

H BOOTHBY

Norman Bucklin, and Miss Elvina [unclear] Thomas Boothby, all of Seattle; also 5 on Sept. 12, 1959, with the Revs. [unclear] officiating.

DALE

Wisconsin, on November 2nd, 1884. [unclear] Reverend J. C. Bringdale were married [unclear] n-Danish churches in Portland, San [unclear] District Superintendent. They [unclear] ters, Mrs. Charlotte King and Mrs. [unclear] two sisters, four grandchildren, and

KIRK

8. She died April 7, 1958. She and [unclear] Methodist Episcopal Church South in [unclear] ill health sixty-two years ago. He

RIEGER

Otto F. Krieger, passed away on [unclear] er was born in Tipton, Ind. She and [unclear] 5, while he was studying for the [unclear] and came to the Pacific Northwest s as a singer and harpist. Until ill [unclear] st homes and other institutions to [unclear] fected the choirs in her husband's ughters, Mrs. Frank H. Bethel, Ann [unclear] gton, Ill.; a sister, Mrs. Roy Lyle, [unclear] grandchildren.

GERTRUDE L. RINEHART

Mrs. Gertrude L. Rinehart, 84, of Des Moines, died Sept. 28, 1959, in a Mid-way nursing home.

Mrs. Rinehart was born in Anoka, Minn. She came here in 1905. She previously was married to George Robillard. He died in 1922. She remarried in 1925 to Rev. B. W. Rinehart.

Rev. Rinehart held pastorates in Fall City, Riverton, South Park and Bryn Mawr. He died in 1935.

Mrs. Rinehart was interested in work with youth groups. She was a member of the Brooklake Women's Club, the Sunset Club, and the Des Moines Methodist Church.

Surviving are six daughters, Mrs. L. E. Hughes, Des Moines; Mrs. Jessie Watts and Pearl Rinehart, both of Seattle; Mrs. Carl Bristol, Bellingham; Mrs. Phillip Harris, Everson; Mrs. Frank Davidson, Sidney, Ohio; and two grandchildren.

Memorial services were held Sept. 30, in the Des Moines Methodist Church, Revs. E. P. Goulder, Erle Howell, and Paul H. Ashby officiating.

LOIS L. SMITH

Mrs. Lois L. Smith, wife of Rev. Roy Leslie Smith, died in Spartanburg, South Carolina, on Feb. 28, 1960, at the age of 81. She was born in Rockwell City, Iowa, on May 1, 1879. She attended Cornell College at Mt. Vernon, Iowa, the University of Chicago, and Oberlin College. She was united in marriage to Roy Leslie Smith in Rockwell City, Iowa, on Sept. 3, 1907. Rev. and Mrs. Smith came to this Conference in 1931 and retired in 1950, having served churches in Spokane, Tacoma, Bellingham, and Richland. Memorial services were held in Spartanburg.

Surviving her are her husband, Roy Leslie Smith; one daughter, Mrs. J. P. Patrick of Spartanburg; a son, Dr. Eugene L. Smith, Executive Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Methodist Church, living in East Orange, N. J.; and four grandchildren.

Lay Member

MILTON ENSLEY, SR.

Mr. Milton Ensley, Sr., Lay Member from the First Methodist Church, Colfax, died January 20, 1960, at the Deaconess Hospital in Spokane. He was 69 years of age.

Mr. Ensley was born in 1890 in the Onecho District near Colfax of pioneer Methodist parents and became a life-long member of the Methodist Church. Although a leader in the community, his primary interest was in the church. He served faithfully in various positions up through the years and was at the time of his death a member of the Conference Board of Evangelism. Mr. Ensley was highly respected as a Christian and won people to the cause of Christ by word and example. His interest in Missions was outstanding. Besides being a generous giver to World Service he also gave support to one of our Mission Schools in India. His memory will live on and his influence will be felt for years to come.

Milton Ensley is survived by his wife, Merle; three sons: Melvin, Allen, and Milton, Jr., who is entering the ministry; one daughter: Mrs. Marshall Miller.

Services were held from the First Methodist Church, Colfax, on January 26, 1960, with his pastor, Rev. Martin T. Larson, officiating.