

The OFFICIAL JOURNAL
and
MINUTES of the
DETROIT ANNUAL CONFERENCE
of
THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

152nd Session of the Detroit Annual Conference and the

25th Session of the Detroit Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church

held at

ADRIAN COLLEGE

ADRIAN, MICHIGAN

JUNE 8-11

1993

Bishop Donald A. Ott, President

Mary Jane Jewell, Secretary

Volume XXXX

No. 2

Lloyd Winston Jewett

The Rev. Mr. Lloyd Winston Jewett was born December 24, 1928 in Massachusetts. He married Jean Sadd in 1951. He graduated from Eastern Nazarene College and later received his Masters in Theology from Boston University. He started his ministry in the Maine Conference and then moved to the Detroit Conference. He became an elder in 1961 and in 1967 he retired from the active ministry. He was a member of the Kiwanis Club and loved to work with youth. During his last years he had a ministry to the homeless in Salem, MA. Lloyd Winston Jewett died on November 23, 1992 and is survived by two sons, Lloyd Wesley and Jeffrey and two granddaughters.

Arthur William Philip Munk

The Rev. Arthur William Philip Munk was born April 26, 1909 in Kingsbury, Texas to Walter H. and Lydia Stautzenberger Munk. He received degrees from Southwestern University, Southern Methodist University and Boston University. He married Margaret Eldyss Caldwell on June 9, 1933.

Arthur Munk became an elder in the Southwest Texas Conference and served pastorates in the Northwest Texas Conference, Massachusetts, as Chaplain at Smith College and Associate professor at Wesley College and Professor of philosophy at Albion College. He retired in 1974.

The Rev. Arthur Munk died on October 6, 1992 and is survived by one son Joe Bryon.

William C. O'Dell

It has been said of him "... a persistent and faithful disciple of Jesus Christ who found his ministry among us."

William C. O'Dell died on May 18, 1993

Ray S. Peterson

The Rev. Ray S. Peterson believed in Christ's Great Commission to "Go" to all the nations. He professed the love of Christ despite internal and external adversity. His family is grateful to the United Methodist Church for accepting Ray as one of them and making his last years blessed ones. He retired in 1992 and died November 6, 1992.

Leslie Clifford Sayre

Leslie Clifford Sayre was born in Globe, Arizona on January 4, 1907 to Sydney and Helena Bawden Sayre. He received his A.B. in 1931 from Wayne University; M.A. in 1934 from Northwestern University; B.D. from Garrett Theological Seminary; and ThD in 1936 from Iliff Theological School. He was married to Josephine Jackson on January 17, 1956 and they had four children. He became a deacon in the Detroit Conference in 1929 and an elder in 1931. After serving appointments in the conference, he was director of the Belgian Congo Institute and superintendent in the Kanene District of the Congo. He also served as executive director of the adult department of the National Council of Churches and concluded his ministry at the Kailua Hawaii Methodist Church.

Leslie Sayre authored two books; Africans on Safari and This Rocket Called Freedom. He died August 9, 1992 and is survived by his wife, son William of Royal Oak, daughters Carol Jean of New Jersey, Ruth of Illinois and Mary of Arkansas and eight grandchildren.

Lorenz Stahl

Lorenz Stahl was born in Kula, Yugoslavia and studied theology at the Methodist seminary in Frankfurt, Germany and received a doctorate from the University of Belgrade in Yugoslavia. He was married to Hilda in 1929 in Yugoslavia and served Methodist churches as pastor in Yugoslavia from 1927 until he was drafted by the German SS corps in 1942. When he refused to serve, despite torture, he was sent back to his family and continued to serve as a pastor. In 1944, when the Russians invaded, he and his family went to refugee camps where he served as a chaplain. At the end of World War II he and his family fled into Austria and he served as chaplain for Protestant prisoners of war and spent five years at a parish in Austria. In 1952 the Owosso First UMC sponsored him as a refugee and he served parishes in Owosso for several years. He retired in 1973.

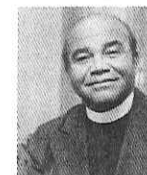

The Rev. Lorenz Stahl died on February 20, 1992. He is survived by his wife and three sons, Siegfried of Mount Clemens, Manfred of Saginaw and Guenther of Mount Morris and one daughter, Esther Bauer of Rochester and ten grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Samuel S. Tatem, Sr.

The Reverend Dr. Samuel S. Tatem, Sr. was born December 9, 1918 in the Turks and Caicos Islands in the Bahamas to Samuel and Beatrice Bascombe Tatem. At the age of eight he felt called to the ministry and at 15 years of age accepted Christ. He worked as a carpenter in Nassau to save money to come to the United States for his education and enrolled in Tennessee State University in 1949. He was licensed to preach in 1950 and ordained in 1956. He served churches in Tennessee, Colorado, Georgia, Maryland, New York and Michigan. He received a BA in 1953 from Tennessee State U., a Master of Divinity from Gammon Theological Seminary in 1956, a Master of Sacred Theology from NY Theological Sem. in 1973 and a Doctorate of Ministry from Berean Grad. School of Divinity in 1978. He loved his parishoners and the people knew it and loved him in return. He gave of himself to his people and to God.

The Rev. Samuel Tatem died February 14, 1993 and is survived by his wife Kerry Mona Hurlston and six children, Dr. Samuel S., Jr. of NYC, Dr. Lewis J. of Virginia, Edward O. of NYC, Edwin E. of Detroit, Weston O. of Virginia and Geneva of Georgia and three granddaughters.

George Ernest Thomas

The Reverend George Ernest Thomas was born February 16, 1907 in Bolton, England to George and Hannah Beddows Thomas. He came to the United States in 1910 and was naturalized in 1915. He received degrees from Boston University and his D.D. from Asbury Seminary in 1963. On June 19, 1929 he married Mildren Klein and they had four children. He served appointments in New Hampshire and New Jersey and was director of Spiritual Life of the General Board of Evangelism in Nashville before coming to Birmingham First UMC in 1961. He retired in 1972 and died March 1, 1993.

