CAROL STONER VANCE, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Vance, was born at Milwood, Tex., February 14, 1903. He was a brother of Marvin Vance. He was licensed to preach in 1933. At the Conference following he was assigned as supply to Genoa and Fresno, where he served until February, 1934, when he was appointed to supply Tomball Station. At Henderson in the fall of 1934 he was admitted on trial into the Texas Conference and reappointed to Tomball, where he served until his death. He graduated from Jacksonville high school in 1921, attended Lon Morris College for almost two sessions, and in 1935 completed his Junior College work in Houston University. There being no parsonage at Tomball he lived in the hotel, where on December 22 fire broke out. He was badly burned and died December 27, 1935. Services were held at Bering Memorial Church, Houston, on December 28, by the writer, assisted by Glenn Flinn and C. W. Hearon. His body was laid to rest in Forest Park Cemetery at Houston. —Guy F. Jones.
