

ALLSTROM, ERIK W. AND MRS.
ALLSTROM

B. W. Allstrom writes in The Centenary Bulletin that he is in the United States in hopes of finding the means for taking a medical course that he may return to Java as a missionary doctor. Even while there only as a school teacher, he averaged 150 patients a month, and the opportunity for ministering to the needs that abounded on every hand drove him to acquire what skill and resources he could to relieve suffering, and he now wants a thorough professional training that he and his wife may return to that land of opportunities.

never been to church here are the dants of both the English and Chinese churches.
I can safely say that financially the Chinese brethren are trying to do their bit, and I trust that before very long they will be able to support their own church, and relieve the Mission of one of its burdens.

Mr. Tan Hong Sin, of Kulim, reports: About twelve of our members have recently left Kulim, owing to the fact that the cost of living has gone up very high. Since this big shift I have been feeling as Peter must have felt when he said "Master, I have toiled all night and have taken nothing."
