For the record:

In memoriam: Agnes Ashwill (retired), India and Burma, February 7, 1956.
I first knew Miss Ashwill in the Calcutta Girls' High School when I first went there in 1919 and I know something of her deep concern for the girls in her classes. She was a true missionary and gave of "her best to the Master." Recently in Alhambra, when calling on Miss Ashwill, she was still keenly interested in hearing of several of the girls she had had in school in Calcutta.

How we thank and praise God that He has made such wonderful preparation for His children and to know that Agnes Ashwill has entered her Eternal Home where "God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain:" And there Agnes can continue serving without the handicaps of our human bodies.

How glorious it must have been as she awoke and found herself with her "Pilot, face to face" and knew of a certainty that; "Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love Him."

I sincerely submit the above Memorial for Agnes Ashwill and only wish I had had more time so I could have consulted her two nieces, Mrs. Robert G. Baker, 2945 S. Quince, Olympia, Washington and Mrs. L.E. Dooley, 116 E. Roanoke, Centralia, Washington, about her.

Sincerely,

Memorial for Miss Agnes Ashwill.

"And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph song.
And hearts are brave again, and arms are strong,
Alleluia! Alleluia!"

This verse of the old hymn always seems appropriate when thinking of one of God's dear children who have given of their "best to the Master.

Miss Agnes Ashwill, a missionary under the Cincinnati Branch of Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church, was born January 3rd, 1874, at Delaware, Ohio. After attending the public school and graduating, she entered Ohio Wesleyan University and in 1904 graduated with the B.A. degree. During her first furlough home from India, she studied and gained her M.A. degree in Education at the Columbia University at New York.

Her first appointment in India was at the Wellesley Girls' School with Miss Rue Sellers in charge, at Naini Tal in the Himalayan mountains. Returning to India, after furlough, she was appointed to the Calcutta Girls' High School with Miss Daisy Wood and in 1920 was transferred to the English Girls' High School, in Rangoon, Burma. Failing health caused her return to America after a short term in Burma and in 1926 was officially retired.

For a time, she lived with relatives in Washington State and in 1936 she came to California. For a short period, she was at Thoburn Terrace doing some nursing, after which she took an apartment in the home of a friend in Alhambra, and was still living with her till she had a stroke in early February this year and was taken to the local hospital where on Feb. 7 she passed away.

In writing about Miss Ashwill, I wish I might have known her when she was growing up. Thus I do know that she became a young woman of very high principles with a great desire to serve her Master and help her girls to be come their best for the Master. 1956
