BURNS, BISHOP FRANCIS
Baltimore, Md., May 7th.

Dear Dr. Terry-

I telegraphed you yesterday afternoon that Bishop Burns died at 10 o'clock. I requested that Bp. Jones should come on and preach at 3 on Tuesday afternoon. I fear I shall have to preach. His body is embalmed, and will be sent to Liberia by the ship "Palmer," Burns will return with it. I ought to have said he died without a struggle-like burnt out—he spoke three minutes before he died—and was thought to be a little better within 5 minutes of his death. He was reduced to a mere skeleton. In all his conversations he manifested great peace—deep calm—quiet. It was a beautiful death—but not triumphant.

As ever yours J.P.D.

(J.P. Durbin)

FRIDAY, May 2.

Troubled about many things, while still in bed, I thought it best to go to the President. At the door, learned the President was over the city. This surprised me. The President is always so kind. He is always so kind. He is always so kind.

SATURDAY, May 3.

Coffee considerably strong, in my left hand, book, dictionary, pencil. Worked at it. At times I thought I forget the way. Work, as I can, as I can.work. Working at it, without a lot of straightenings. Something alluded to a long way. It helped a little, with some trying to be as big as it can.

SUNDAY, May 4.

Went this morning to see the President. Arrived late, and the President was already in bed. He was not up. He was not up. He was not up.

MONDAY, May 5.

Now to day that Mr. C. is no more. Better looking for. Mr. C. is no more. Better looking for.
THURSDAY, May 8.

My friend is in Boston. Mr. Miller, E.G. Smith, and Mr. Hamblett, of whom you spoke so highly in your letter, also came in here. We had a good time of social and official conferences. Mr. E.G. Smith, Mr. Miller, and Mr. Hamblett, are married, and reside in the city. They spoke to me of the various modes of amusement. I shall be glad to know if you are interested in all of it.

WEDNESDAY, May 7.

Another friend called to see us to-day. I spoke of a trip to the South. He is going to the South, and I asked him if he had heard of the West Indies. He said he had not. I was just about to describe to him the various methods of amusement in the South, when he said, "What are the prevalent fads?"

THURSDAY, May 8.

A very rainy day. Streets and yards are flooded, and it is difficult to go out at all.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Miller are at the hotel. The weather is very good, and I have been able to enjoy myself. I shall be glad to hear from you about the times of all the various fads.

FRIDAY, May 9.

Well, morning, this is my first letter to you. I hope you have received my last. I received a letter from you on Monday, and I wrote as soon as I could. I am not able to write in detail, but I hope you received the letter. This is always the case. We receive letters from you frequently, but we cannot answer them all.
SUNDAY, May 16.

Went to Church this morning, dragged the S. D. out of bed at 7 a.m. A.M., no know-able reason. After breakfast the S. D. went to do some work in the room. He finished his work and then went to do a little wood work. He had some wood to do, which he did.

TUESDAY, May 18.

Went to Myers and Mr. G. and got a letter from Mrs. G. She said she was very well and that her husband was also. She asked if we had heard from the S. D. She said she had not heard from him for a long time.

WEDNESDAY, May 19.

Wrote a letter to Mr. G. telling him about the S. D. and his work. He said he had heard that the S. D. was doing well. The S. D. said he was doing well.

SUNDAY, July 13.

Went to the Methodist church at 10 A.M., where I joined some dear friends present in the services. The manner of their worship is in accord with whole life is in advance. They pray in the back of the room. I can only imagine the way in which a person is influenced by the words and sentiments of the people present, by the things they say. The whole is a feeling of inspiration. I joined at 5 from the 10.

MONDAY, July 14.

An another place on the same mission with the French. I am interested in increasing the work. We have a large congregation, and there are many who want to take part in the mission. I wrote a letter to a man in a foreign country who has been very kind to us. We met with much success.

TUESDAY, July 15.

Rain, rain could not last. Letter from Bishop at 8 a.m. Ours would be another column. I have several letters from friends in the city. We have been to the city several times. I have been to the city several times.

WEDNESDAY, July 16.

Wishing you good health and success, both to yourself and to others. I have been writing letters to friends in the city. I have been writing letters to friends in the city. I have been writing letters to friends in the city. I have been writing letters to friends in the city.
THURSDAY, July 17.

Dressed early. Sighted the paper, Journal of the General Court. Feeling direction to attend the Kindergarten at 11 a.m., I did not go to bed until 11. The Kindergarten is to meet at 11, and the preliminary exercises are to be given by Dr. Bacon. The room is very small, but the children are well-behaved and attentive. The exercises consist of singing, reciting, and writing. The children are divided into groups according to their ages.

FRIDAY, July 18.

Went to bed early last night. The young ladies of the Kindergarten will be in charge of the children during the afternoon. The exercises will consist of reading, writing, and arithmetic.

SATURDAY, July 19.

Took a walk in the afternoon. The weather is warm and pleasant. The children were well-behaved and attentive during the exercises.

SUNDAY, July 20.

Went to church early in the morning. The service was well conducted, and the children were well-behaved during the exercises.

Note.

The Kindergarten will be in charge of the young ladies of the Kindergarten during the afternoon. The exercises will consist of reading, writing, and arithmetic. The children are well-behaved and attentive during the exercises.
Monday, July 22

Took a coach and went to town, but was not well, and went back to Linn County, where I found the doctor and the doctor's wife. We went to the hospital and saw the doctor. He said I was very ill and that I should not go back to town. I decided to stay at the doctor's house and rest. I had a good night's sleep, and felt better in the morning.

Wednesday, July 24

Wrote a letter to my friend in town. He said he would be happy to come and see me. I told him I would be happy to have him come. We talked about the weather and the news.

Thursday, July 25

Today was a fine day. I went for a walk in the country. The air was fresh and the sky was clear. I felt much better.

Friday, July 26

Took a coach to town again. I met a friend who had come from town. We talked about the news and the weather.
Friday, July 31

Left a light flame of this appearance, by varying the wave in a secret position. The moon, by its first day, was an inch off. The ship had sailed a few miles from the shore where the anchor was set, by the shore where the anchor was set. The ship had sailed a few miles from the shore where the anchor was set. The ship had sailed a few miles from the shore where the anchor was set.

Saturday, July 32

Married a Canadian Miss, by picking up a few dollars, and by the pardon of God. By the kindness of God, by the kindness of God, by the kindness of God. By the kindness of God, by the kindness of God.

Sunday, July 33

Reached at 11 a.m. from 10. a.m. It is a change, to get the本领 of the day. A poor wind, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men, and poor men.
Wednesday, July 30.

The usual Independence Day meeting was held, with a large attendance. The exercises were of the usual character, and the addresses were interesting. The evening was a memorable one. It seemed as if the whole town was present. The meeting was adjourned.

Thursday, July 31.

In the evening, a public meeting was held in the town. The speakers were energetic and eloquent. The meeting was a success.

Friday, August 1.

For the first time within my recollection, we had a public meeting on Independence Day. The occasion was a solemn one. We felt the weight of our responsibilities. We were determined to make our country safe for democracy.

MIDNIGHT, August 21.

Letter from Mr. President informed me he conceived he could not enter into the Committee to the Secretaries and Directors, excepting the Whole, informed me he should not return to the House till at least one,...

WEDNESDAY, August 22.

The post 3 o'clock, to the Paper, had been sent by the Postmaster. I sent a copy of the post to the Postmaster, deeply to, being prepared for getting again. After dinner I went to the President's room, where he had called upon the President for some business, and was detained a week longer. Very delightful way of spending time. Spent part of the morning writing about the subscription. Mr. Biddulph at about 5, President arrived at 8.

THURSDAY, August 23.

Mr. Biddulph at 8 o'clock. Again went to the President's room. The President informed me he would not return to the House till the 27th of August, the House proceeding.
FRIDAY, August 28.

This sad little note was sent in the evening of the 26th. I was at Long Branch and was told that Mr. and Mrs. C. had arrived early that day. I was told that they wanted to stay a few days here and that I should come back to the city. I was told that they wanted to see me.

SATURDAY. August 29.

I was taught the Lord's Prayer by the presiding elder. We went to the church and I was told that I should stay there until he came back. I was told that I should stay there until he came back.

SUNDAY, August 30.

We went to the church and I was told that I should stay there until he came back. I was told that I should stay there until he came back.
TUSSDAY, August 26.

A letter from my friend in London arrived last night, bringing me the news of the death of a friend. The letter was written in London, and it seems that my friend had been quite ill for some time. The news was a shock to me, and I am feeling very sad about it.

WEDNESDAY, August 26.

I spent the day in writing letters to my friends in London, and I also spent some time thinking about my friend's life. It was a difficult day for me, but I tried to keep busy and distraction from my grief.

Dear Sir:

I find myself in a situation that is one of the most trying that I have ever been in. I am at a loss what to write to you about.

I am, therefore, in a state of continual anxiety and anxiety that is not relieved by the knowledge that I am in a position to do so.

I hope to hear from you soon.

Yours truly,

Another week, finished the building of a canoe at the back of the shop. The outside is often painted in many different colors, but the interior is not. Painted a little space with a green one, but the main color is white.

WEDNESDAY, December 17.

At the hotel found a box sent, but it had been reboxed at the post office, so took it over to No. 125. The goods were back as ordered. It was 100° outside, but work of the family continued.

THURSDAY, December 18.

Thanksgiving day, spent the day in going out with my friends, all the usual festivities, including a turkey dinner.

FRIDAY, December 18.

One of the most enjoyable days of the week. Some of the boys called and we had a good time in the yard. The weather was very pleasant.

TUESDAY, December 19.

Another week, finished the painting of the outside of the canoe.
SUNDAY, December 21.

Somehow felt myself under the sense of special Holy Presence. A stillness of Heaven appeared in the land, as though I was alone with God. In the midst of the storm, there was a sense of peace and security. The answer came, "Be still, and know that I am God."

The Lord's hand was upon me. I felt a sense of His presence. I was not alone. I was in the presence of the Holy Spirit. I was upheld by His grace. I was grounded in His love.

MEDITATION.

"My strength is in the Lord." (Psalm 119:14)

"In You, O Lord, do I put my trust; let me never be put to shame.

"My soul clings to You; Your right hand upholds me." (Psalm 16:5)

"I will not be moved; I will not be shifted, for I am in the Lord's hand." (Psalm 44:2)

"In the Lord I trust...." (Psalm 31:14)

"Be still and know that I am God." (Psalm 46:10)

"I will not be moved, for I am in the Lord's hand." (Psalm 44:2)

"My soul clings to You; Your right hand upholds me." (Psalm 16:5)

"Do not be afraid; stand firm and you will see the victory of the Lord over those who attack you." (Psalm 31:14)

"I trust in the Lord, yes, I take refuge in the Lord." (Psalm 31:14)

"I will not be moved, for I am in the Lord's hand." (Psalm 44:2)

"I will not be moved, for I am in the Lord's hand." (Psalm 44:2)

"My soul clings to You; Your right hand upholds me." (Psalm 16:5)

"I trust in the Lord, yes, I take refuge in the Lord." (Psalm 31:14)
WEDNESDAY, December 24.

Read the 24th Psalm, and John 3:16-18. The President of the Lodge held the opening prayer. The service was conducted in a most impressive manner. Many members of the Lodge were present.

FRIDAY, December 26.

At 10 in the Estimating Committee. I attended a meeting of the committee, and the work proceeded with great success. The President presided, and the committee made a report on the matters under consideration.

SATURDAY, December 27.

At 1 o'clock in the morning. We met in the lodge hall, and I attended a meeting of the lodge. The President presided, and the proceedings were of a most impressive character. Many members of the lodge were present.
SUNDAY, December 30.

Saw Mr. A. and Mr. B. at the office. Mr. A. and Mr. B. are at the office in the morning. Mr. A. and Mr. B. are busy with their work. The weather is cold and damp. It is a cloudy day.

TUESDAY, December 31.

In the Committee, an important discussion took place. The discussion was about the new plans for the community center. The committee members discussed the details and the budget for the project. The meeting continued until late.
