The purpose of this finding aid is to help you understand the nature of this collection and to assist you in the retrieval of material from this collection. The following pages contain a brief biographical history of the person, or persons, who created or collected these papers, followed by a general description of the collection in the scope and content note. If more detailed information is warranted then series descriptions also appear. The container listing appears last and is the listing of material in each box, or container, of this collection. To request material you need to turn to the container listing section. It is essentially a listing of file folders, or artifact items, in the collection. Each folder, or item, has a call number associated with it. Each folder also lists the inclusive dates of the material in the folder. On the material request form list both the call number and the folder, or item, title. Use a different line for each folder, or item, requested. When your request sheet is complete, or full, bring it to the archivist and the material will be retrieved.

Biographical Note

Douglas Dutro Woodard (1916-), an educator, attended the University of Chicago and the Art Institute of Chicago. During World War II he served four years in the United States Army in the Pacific. He received a B.A. from Brigham Young University and in 1948 an M.A. from Georgetown University. Woodard taught U.S. and world history in secondary schools for eleven years in Arlington County, Virginia, one year in Petersburg, Alaska, and many years in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Scope Note

This collection contains manuscripts, photographs, correspondence, notes, questionnaires, cemetery records, reports, college programs, and other sundry documents relating to the history of Westfield College in Westfield, Illinois. The college was started by the Methodist Episcopal Church. The manuscript is a mimeographed copy of the "History of Westfield College" written by Woodard in 1973. The photographs are black and white, and represent places and events related with the college history. A numbered list of these photographs is found at the end of the manuscript. The correspondence consists of letters written to and received from alumni of Westfield College or members of the Westfield community. All of the correspondence was generated while Woodard was researching the Westfield College history. Also included in this collection are questionnaires that Woodard sent out to gather information about the college, cemetery records, programs of Westfield college commencements and concerts, annual reports submitted by the college, deeds, and research notes.

Arrangement

Material has been arranged in the following manner.

Series: Correspondence.

Series: General Records.

Series: History of Westfield College Manuscript.

Series: Photographs.

Access Restrictions

The manuscript of the "History of Westfield College" is not to be published without the donor's permission. Otherwise there are no restrictions on the use of this collection.

Preferred Citation

When citing material from this collection please use the following format: Direct reference to the item or its file folder, Douglas Dutro Woodard Collection, United Methodist Church Archives - GCAH, Madison, New Jersey. Do not make use of the item's call number as that is not a stable descriptor.
