The purpose of this finding aid is to help you understand the nature of this collection and to assist you in the retrieval of material from this collection. The following pages contain a brief biographical history of the person, or persons, who created or collected these papers, followed by a general description of the collection in the scope and content note. If more detailed information is warranted then series descriptions also appear. The container listing appears last and is the listing of material in each box, or container, of this collection. To request material you need to turn to the container listing section. It is essentially a listing of file folders, or artifact items, in the collection. Each folder, or item, has a call number associated with it. Each folder also lists the inclusive dates of the material in the folder. On the material request form list both the call number and the folder, or item, title. Use a different line for each folder, or item, requested. When your request sheet is complete, or full, bring it to the archivist and the material will be retrieved.

History Note

Theodore N. Hagan (?-?), Lay Leader in the Janes Memorial United Methodist Church, Eastern Pennsylvanian Annual Conference and Philadelphia District was an active church leader and representative on all levels of the United Methodist connection. He served as the Janes UMC Sunday School Superintendent. On a district level Hagan was a member of the Conference District Council and as a General Church School Work leader on the District Staff on Christian Education. Hagan also served as a delegate to both the Northeast Jurisdiction and General Conference.

Scope and Content Note

The documents are topical and wide ranging of work in the Delaware Annual Conference, 1939 church union and a Gulfside Assembly history. Additional records include a few selected items documenting the former African American Delaware Annual Conference ministries to children and youth. Included are photographs, minutes, publications and bulletins for a Children's Workers Institute and a Centennial Celebration of the Delaware Annual Conference.

The photographs include group photographs of annual conference youth and young adult fellowship conferences. There are four photographs of adult leaders. Two issues of The Informer are included which was published by the Board of Education, Delaware Annual Conference (1962, 1964). The bulletins document the 1964 Centennial Celebration worship service along with the 1963 Program for the Children's Workers Institute. A 1962 Directory for the Delaware Youth Assembly, Delaware Annual Conference Methodist Youth Conference (1962) rounds out the rest of the collection.
