The purpose of this finding aid is to help you understand the nature of this collection and to assist you in the retrieval of material from this collection. The following pages contain a brief biographical history of the person, or persons, who created or collected these papers; followed by a general description of the collection in the scope and content note. If more detailed information is warranted then series descriptions also appear.

The container listing appears last and is the listing of material in each box, or container, of this collection. To request material you need to turn to the container listing section. It is essentially a listing of file folders, or artifact items, in the collection. Each folder, or item, has a call number associated with it. Each folder also lists the inclusive dates of the material in the folder. On the material request form list both the call number and the folder, or item, title. Use a different line for each folder, or item, requested. When your request sheet is complete, or full, bring it to the archivist and the material will be retrieved.

Biographical Note

Harold Augustus Bosley (1907-1975), American Methodist minister and church leader, was born on February 19, 1907 in Burchard, Nebraska, to Augustus Merrill and Effie Sinclair Bosley. Margaret Marie Dahlstrom married Harold Bosley on July 21, 1928. The union produced five children - Paul Shailer, Norman Keith, Sidney Stanton, Diane Marie and David Merrill.

Bosley did undergraduate study at the Nebraska Wesleyan University in 1930. In 1933, he had completed requirements for both the B. D. and the Ph.D. degrees at the University of Chicago. His four years (1934-1938) as Director of Religious Activities at Iowa State Teacher's College was but a prelude to three Methodist pastorates - Mount Vernon Place Methodist Church, Baltimore (1938-1947), First Methodist Church, Evanston (1950- 1962), and Christ Church, Methodist, New York City (1962-1974) and the Deanship of Duke Divinity School, 1947-1950.

During his stellar academic work at the University of Chicago, Bosley immersed himself in the works of Henry Nelson Wieman and Alfred North Whitehead which shaped the direction and content of his life-long ministry. The academic rigors he applied to his studies continued into his professional career which manifested itself in the copious amounts of influential literature which included twenty-four books and essays. In addition to regular preaching in his own pulpit, Bosley was active on the lecture circuit , often preached on radio and television, which made him a household name in both church and secular circles. Besides serving as pastor in three of the most influential denominational churches he would often teach courses and served as trustee of many prominent schools. He often taught the areas of Christian ethics, philosophy and homiletic at both Garrett-Evangelical and Drew Theological seminaries. Bosley would also teach seminar classes and preach chapel services at a number of notable colleges, universities and pulpits across the country.

Bosley was best known as the senior minister of Christ Church Methodist of New York City and delegate to three assemblies of the World Council of Churches, and a member of the governing board of the National Council of Churches in the United States. Bosley also had a special passion for world peace and civil and human rights. A clergy member of every Methodist General Conference from 1948 to 1970, he chaired the powerful legislative Committee on Christian Social Concerns in 1968 and 1970 at a time of great social upheaval in both the church and country. He was a member of an interfaith team which visited South Vietnam in 1965 under the auspices of the Fellowship of Reconciliation. Three times he traveled to the Soviet Union with an interfaith team in 1966, 1967 and 1971 and to Spain in 1967. He founded an interreligious group in 1966 which tried unsuccessfully to ship 10, 000 Jewish prayer books to the Soviet Union.

Harold Bosley retired from active ministry in June 1974 and died on January 20, 1975. Funeral services were held in both Mount Vernon Place United Methodist Church and Christ Church, United Methodist. Internment took place at Druid Ridge Cemetery in Baltimore, Maryland.

Scope Note

Researchers and students will find in this unique collection the record of a prominent and eloquent mid-twentieth century preacher and pastor. In addition scholars will find that the collection reveals a substantial contribution to the involvement of American churches in social, political, ecumenical, interfaith dialogue and international affairs. Bosley had a special passion for world peace and civil and human rights.

The Bosley Papers is a large collection that is housed in one hundred and fifty-nine boxes. A conservative estimate would include more than 7,000 letters which illustrate Bosley's involvement with various social and religious groups. Prominent church people he corresponded with include luminaries such as Harry Emerson Fosdick, Halford Luccock, Albert Day, Paul Hutchinson, John Bennett, Charles Parlin, G. Bromley Oxnam, Francis McConnell, and James Armstrong. Other correspondence with those outside of the church include Benjamin Spock, J. W. Fulbright, Hubert Humphry, Marguerite Stitt, John V. Lindsey, George McGovern, John D. Rockefeller, Thomas Clark and J. Roscoe Miller.

To get to the basic philosophy that drove Bosley to become the leader he was the researcher will need to explore the eight hundred plus sermons in the collection along with more than one hundred and fifty manuscripts, essays, clippings, Bible lessons, book reviews, newsletters and prayers. Bosley's adept administration skills are displayed in the various minutes, reports, notes, and correspondence. The family series reflect his love for sailing and the New Jersey shore to which he finally retired to in 1974. The closeness of the Bosley clan is also illustrated in this same series.

Overall we see in this collection a passionate professional whose intelligence was only eclipsed by the love he felt for those around him. To study how Bosley successfully navigated the tumultuous times in which he lived give us a keen insight into both the man and world he tried to make better during his ministry.
