The purpose of this finding aid is to help you understand the nature of this collection and to assist you in the retrieval of material from this collection. The following pages contain a brief biographical history of the person, or persons, who created or collected these papers, followed by a general description of the collection in the scope and content note. If more detailed information is warranted then series descriptions also appear. The container listing appears last and is the listing of material in each box, or container, of this collection. To request material you need to turn to the container listing section. It is essentially a listing of file folders, or artifact items, in the collection. Each folder, or item, has a call number associated with it. Each folder also lists the inclusive dates of the material in the folder. On the material request form list both the call number and the folder, or item, title. Use a different line for each folder, or item, requested. When your request sheet is complete, or full, bring it to the archivist and the material will be retrieved.

History Note

Scarritt Bible and Training School was founded in 1892 by the Woman's Missionary Society of The Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Kansas City, Missouri for the purpose of educating and training workers for foreign missions. In 1902, Scarritt Bible and Training School was expanded to include the training of deaconesses and home missionaries.

Belle Harris Bennett was the driving force in establishing and raising funds for Scarritt after visiting Lucy Rider Meyer at the Chicago Deaconess School. It was during that visit Bennett realized future Southern Methodist missionary women needed training schools as well. The Reverend Nathan Scarritt became the school's primary financial benefactor and donor of land in Kansas City to bring Bennett's dream to fruition. As a result of his continued largess and service the school would be named in his honor.

Scarritt Bible and Training School moved to Nashville, Tennessee in 1924 and was reorganized as the coeducational Scarritt College for Christian Workers under the leadership of President Jesse Lee Cuninggim. In order for Scarritt to receive instant accreditation for its college program required they become affiliated with George Peabody College for Teachers. Scarritt College for Christian Workers would eventually start a graduate degree program. Under Jesse Lee Cuninggim's administration, the Joint University Library was formed with Peabody College and Vanderbilt University.

By 1926, The Woman's Missionary Council transferred ownership of the college to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Following the 1939 unification of the three branches of Methodism to form the Methodist Church, its General Conference continued oversight of the school but allowed the Board of Missions, with strong support by the Woman's Society of Christian Service, to elect trustees. This administrative structure continued after the 1968 merger which formed The United Methodist Church.

The Scarritt College for Christian Workers became Scarritt Graduate Center from 1981-1988, offering course work in Christian Education and Church Music. Since 1989, after the grounds were purchased by the former Women's Division, General Board of Global Ministries, The United Methodist Church, repurposed the campus to become the Scarritt Bennett Center to serve as a retreat and conference center.

The collection contains the records for Scarritt-Bennett Center and its antecedent organizations, Scarritt Bible and Training School (1892-1924), Scarritt College for Christian Workers (1924-1981), Scarritt Graduate School (1981-1988) and Scarritt Bennett Center (1989-Present). The records are arranged by institution, president's offices under past presidents, and departments. There are separate series of former training schools around the United States that were eventually absorbed by Scarritt.

Record types include student records (1894-1924) from Scarritt Bible and Training School and other institutions eventually absorbed by Scarritt. These schools include the Methodist Training School (1907-1915), The Kansas City National Training School for Deaconesses and Missionaries, The National Training School for Christian Workers, Iowa National Training School (1899- 1924), and the Lucy Webb Hayes National Training School (1890-1933). Additional material from Scarritt Bible and Training School years includes correspondence to and from Maria Layng Gibson, financial journals, items from a trip Gibson made to Brazil and Cuba, invoices and correspondence with business firms and individuals in Kansas City, Missouri. In addition, there is correspondence to and from Jesse Lee Cuningham.

There are numerous college catalogues from Scarritt-Bennett (1940-1986), National Training School (1934-1946), Fisk Deaconess and Bible Training School (1901-1904), and Kansas City National Training School (1905- 1933). In addition, there are two school seals. One is from National Training School, and the other is from Scarritt-Bennett.

A substantial part of this collection contains subject and administrative files on issues related to college and school life, administration, students, faculty, and curriculum. Many of the items in these files are correspondence, which have been arranged by the presidential administration. Faculty meeting minutes (1957-1983) and faculty related documents are included as well. Scrapbooks, photographs, slides and news clippings are also contained in this collection. Subjects include, but are not limited to: trustees, buildings, alumni, faculty, and students.
